TRADE UNION RIGHTS

FOR ALDI STAFF

Usdaw is campaigning to get trade union rights for Aldi staff. Many employees in the stores and distribution centres have already joined Usdaw but Aldi is refusing to recognise the trade union.

Aldi says “Our employees are the key to our success. They are the ones that define the Aldi business day after day and distinguish us from our competitors”. If this is the case, why will Aldi not support employees by recognising their trade union?

Aldi states it is “committed to fairtrade and a fair deal for farmers”. Why is Aldi not treating the workforce fairly by recognising their trade union?

Aldi promises customers “quality products at the best prices”. Why not offer quality jobs with the right to join a trade union?

Join Usdaw

If you work for Aldi we strongly advise you to join Usdaw. We want a trade union in Aldi so we can negotiate better pay and conditions, proper breaks, better notification and fewer changes to shifts and improved health and safety.

You can join Usdaw online at www.usdaw.org.uk/aldi
or call 0845 60 60 640
