

Usdaw Regional Equalities Forums Nomination Form

Would you like to be involved in the Union's equalities work?

Are you interested in issues like disability rights, women's health, tackling racism and LGBT+ equality?

Usdaw is looking for members to take up a seat on their Regional Equalities Forum. There are seats on the forum for the following groups of members - women, black and ethnic minority members, disabled members and lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and non-binary members (LGBT+).

The reason why there are seats on the forum for these four groups of members is because they are under-represented in the Union's structures, lay roles and at events. Usdaw believes this needs addressing and wants to find ways to reach out to and involve these groups of members.

Here are some of the practical things the forums do:

- Run weekend schools on issues like supporting disabled members, women's health, tackling racism at work.
- Organise local get-togethers and workplace visits to support and encourage new members.
- Work with other Union reps and officials to recruit more members and reps.

If you would like to be involved in your Regional Equalities Forum please fill out the form overleaf.

There are usually around four forum meetings a year and Usdaw will pay your travel, out of pocket expenses and any loss of wages for any forum meetings/activities you take part in.

The closing date for submitting this form is Friday, 27 October 2023. Nominations for the forums will be considered by your Regional Council at their meeting in November. You will be contacted in mid-December to be advised if you have been selected to sit on your forum.

Please email your completed form to either of the following:
